

JAPAN WAITING FOR REPLY OF AMERICA

Hayashi Withholds His Speech
Giving Nation's Policy Until Received.

RIGID RULES AS TO LABORERS

Their Emigration to America
Only to Be Allowed Under Satisfactory Conditions.

TOKIO, Jan. 25.—The program for today's session of the diet, including the speech of Foreign Minister Viscount Hayashi regarding the emigration question, was suddenly changed and the speech was postponed until Jan. 30, when it is expected that Viscount Hayashi will outline definitely the plans of the government for the restriction of emigration to America and Canada. It is understood that the postponement was due to the fact that a reply from the American government to the last memorandum from Japan was expected to be handed to the foreign office this afternoon.

Since the delivery of its last memorandum the Japanese government has issued the most stringent instructions to its governors and other officials concerning the regulation of future immigration along the lines of the future definite policy of restriction which includes the prevention of emigration of laborers to America and Canada, except under given conditions which will be satisfactory to the governments of both these countries.

No laborers will be permitted to emigrate to Mexico. Evidence of the determination of the Japanese government is shown by an official order issued to emigration companies to-day, wherein all emigration to the Hawaiian Islands is absolutely prohibited except in the case of relatives of Japanese already residing there.

The order bearing on emigration to the Hawaiian Islands has created consternation among the emigration companies who expected to institute a virulent attack upon the foreign office policy in this respect. Viscount Hayashi, however, is determined not to yield and says that the Japanese government having given a promise will not recede from it regardless of political pressure.

Welcome to Viscount Aoki.
TOKIO, Jan. 25.—The United States ambassador to the United States, Mr. Aoki, arrived here this morning and was met by a representative of the Japanese government, Mr. Shimabashi, at the station. This city, he was met by Baron Chinda, of the foreign office, by many officials of the Japanese government and numerous Japanese who extended to him a cordial welcome home.

unique exposition which has been arranged in this honor. This consists of a loan exhibition of forty masterpieces of British art, with a total value of $350,000, at the Prussian Royal Academy of Arts. The pictures were brought especially from England with the consent of the private owners. Among them are J. Pierpont Morgan, the Duke of Westminster, Charles Worth, Alfred Rothchild, Lord Swaythling, William Lockett, Agnew and Henry Oppenheim.

The Duke of Westminster is reported to have declared: "I have never yet enjoyed by Gainsborough, but if Emperor Williams regards my sending it as a compliment I shall gladly agree." When Mr. Morgan's London secretary was requested to loan Reynolds's famous painting of Lady Betty Deane and children, he replied that under no circumstances could this picture leave his custody. Professor Kramf then called direct to Mr. Morgan, who promptly responded: "I willingly consent to my entire collection going to Berlin for the benefit of art lovers."

NEWS GATHERED FROM SOUTSIDE

Commonwealth's Attorney to Apply for Mandamus in Davis Perjury Case.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, No. 1102 Hull Street.

The case of David Davis, charged with perjury, which was certified from the Corporation Court to the Police Court, and which was to be called for trial yesterday morning, was postponed at the request of Commonwealth's Attorney Page, who will apply to the Supreme Court for a mandamus compelling the prisoner to appear in the Corporation Court.

As stated several times heretofore, Davis was indicted for perjury committed by him on his voir dire as a juror in the trial of Charles H. Myers, who stood indicted for forgery, a felony, the statute defining perjury declares that perjury committed "on trial for felony" shall be deemed a felony, so that the question in the Davis case is this—the examination of jurors on their voir dire a part of the trial? Commonwealth's Attorney Page wishes the point settled by the Supreme Court. It suggested this to Judge Cropper, of the Corporation Court, who agreed.

Bail was again granted to Davis. The case will probably be tried at the next term of the Corporation Court, provided the mandamus is issued.
